

Alright, alright! Before this ends like in the Asylum where I missed to do a proper walkthrough and pay the price until today by having to answer a ton of private messages on discord or patreon on “How to get the Nikki Ending?” and other stuff...I will finally spend my time with a quick guide on how to survive as a slave in the skull mine! I’m not very good at writing guides for my games. And I don’t like spending my time on doing so. A good start to get you all excited for this walkthrough, right? Ok, more positive: Welcome to “Captured by Dark Elves” ! Some basics at the start...and if you want the detailed episode walkthroughs you scroll down to the end!

First things first!

Now, some of you guys don’t even bother reading the ingame text, and the most asked questions is actually: “Your sex scenes are more than 10 minutes long, there is no way to stop them!” And while I find the idea very funny of some of you guys sitting before your desktop, thinking “What the hell was this moron thinking!? WHEN IS THIS TORTURE GOING TO END?” ... the answer is very simple. Press and hold down Escape (Esc). That gets mentioned in the game a lot actually. But yeah...meh...text, right? Who even reads that....

And before the android users are asking: You are using the double finger tap. Touch and hold your screen with a finger on both sides. That is your escape button! Android users, please remember that!

Now, on to the 2nd most common question asked: “I cannot please the dark elves!” “They always say that I suck at pleasing them!”. And again, I’ve tried to tell you that in the tutorial, it is very simple. You earn a skill point with every level up! You can access the skill menu with the magic button again (Esc) and then access it through the skill menu. How you skill your character is up to you...and yes, it is totally intended that you are not going to please everyone everytime!

- “But Darktoz, I am always pleasing every woman in real life, and I want to play as myself in the game! I also don’t want to mine since battle is boring and I do not like RPG Maker Games anyway! I’m just here for the XXX scenes!”

Two options for you, hotshot: saveeditonline.com is the first one. Upload your save file (located in the folder www/save), and play with some of the variables like money or exp in order to be the charming superstar you are in real life.

Pretty much the same for the Cheat Code Engine Plugin on github, which is your 2nd option, but that one is a bit more advanced, you have to read it in order to understand, and I like to think that most of you who are looking for a simple, short way to beat the game are not into text that much...nonetheless, here you go: github.com/emeraldCoder/RPG-Maker-MV-Cheat-Menu-Plugin

Allow me to say this: The game is pretty well paced, but a bit hard, especially for beginners. It should feel like you’re a slave in a mine, fighting for survival. No one said that this is going to be easy! Maybe you try a bit and actually fight for survival before you cheat right away, steamroll through the game and then complain how fast it was over.

Ok, you got the basics down...let us jump into the current releases of Captured by Dark Elves! I won’t cover much of the combat since I think that it is pretty much self-explaining. But I might give you some hints about the mining parts of the game. Basically it will be just a basic walkthrough of telling you where to go next and what will happen if you choose Option A instead of Option B, plus where to find all the good, optional stuff!

What? I’m talking too much? Fine. Let’s go!

Intro Episode: Captured by Dark Elves!

Alright, Captured by Dark Elves...see if I can remember everything: After the intro is done and the mining music kicks in you find yourself in a small section of the mine. You can walk down to enter another area of it, and meet some more people, like Goren, the guy you were imprisoned with...or Lorian, the elven alchemist. You will find a skull in the south of the southern area.

Mining the black stones for obsidian is generally a better idea than mining the normal ones for iron ore. That is a valuable pro tip right here, that actually no other slave in this game tells you! So you heard it here first in this awesome walkthrough! Well, maybe the slaves thought you would be smart enough to find out yourself...but they also thought you would read the tutorial text. And that one did not contain any boobs...so it is mostly my fault that you didn't read that, right?

After you discovered that there is no one to have sex with in the intro part of the mine and got yourself some skulls by mining your stamina bar empty (and maybe a little bit of your health since that bit gets healed when you sleep), you can talk to Khadra to sell your stuff and then talk to Elorae to finish your mining day! You can even talk to Elorae right away and try to smuggle all the ore past her. She will find everything when she searches you...but it's all about the freedom of choice these days, right?

Now, here we are at the prison district. Walk around and talk a bit with the others. Yes, you are even allowed to talk to the dark elves. Samira will drag you into the torture chamber right away to tell you that life from now on is going to be...difficult for you.

Optional Scene: Talk with Talice for the TaliceXShyael scene

Optional Scene: Talk with Elorae and Please her (Level 1 Tongue Twirler required)

Optional: Lorian, the elven alchemist, will make some extra potions that are very helpful! If you bring him Nightshade, he will give you some of his potions for free in return. Also note that Elorae's scene can also be triggered on the next day. If you don't have leveled up yet, you might want to wait one day.

It's best that you spend your hard earned skulls in Takashi's little store. Especially bread and water will help you in the early levels for a small amount. You can talk to everyone and everybody...

Emoticons that are shown when you smalltalk are indicating if your relationship level with them is high enough or not or if you have a high enough 'Charmer' skill or not. But you don't get positive or negative affection points for talking to them!

...and when you are done with everything for today, you will have to speak with Za'Ress. She will get you into your cell.

In the cell you have multiple options.

- You can sleep. The best option to heal. Will restore a small amount of health and a good amount of stamina.
- You can observe. That can trigger unique encounters with your captors. (Heal a very small amount of stamina and health without an encounter)
- You can Train. That will give you 50 exp and a stunning sixpack.
- You can Escape. Well, currently you can't. Let us leave it as that for the moment!

Optional Scene: Talk with Za'Ress when Observing (I should say try to talk to...most that you can get out of her is a kick)

After whatever you choose, you will have to make another decision. Khadra and Malthara are arguing about who gets the new slave for the night. They will let you choose! You will get an affection bonus for your chosen dark elf!

Khadra Scene (Level 1 Endurance Required)

Malthara Scene (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

"WAIT! WHAT? I am only Level 1 and have not even got the chance to level up either of these skills! I can't please anyone! DARKTOZ!!! In real life I am always able to please anybody sexually!"

Now listen to great big brain Darktoz, who just read a thing or two about game design! You were supposed to fail in that encounter. Failing in this scene should just tell you that even pleasing them will be hard work and you have to step your game up...so far so good, right?

Then big brain Darktoz thought...well, of course there will be cheaters, so you have to still include the positive endings of the animation scenes. And then I thought...well, it's not like it is fair for the powergamers either who want to achieve everything possible in the game. No one likes failure being the only option!

Long story short: You can actually level up on the first day. You have to get lucky with the RNG of the game (that means you have to get into a lot of fights and mostly drain your stamina and health down) and Level Up on the first day. Happens about 33% of the time if you're pushing for it. If you want to be sure, you can savescum...and feel less like a cheater but still pretty low on the gamer's food chain.

But it actually gives only a very minor affection boost or loss. So it's completely up to you.

2nd day, same area. Mine clever, don't drain your health. Even without it you should be able to easily get to Level 2! And getting to Level 2 is important!

You know the drill, give your ore to Khadra, earn some skulls, go to Elorae and back to the prison district.

Samira will warn you about an upcoming event, so you better make sure your health AND your stamina are at a good level!

Watch the AstridXZa'Ress Scene and after you done saying good night to everyone around you go into your cell again!

Optional Scene: Talk with Talice and she will order you to lick her feet (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

After the weird voice in your head disappears you encounter Samira who seems to have some plans with you. She wants to give the audience a good show with you as the main fighter (or victim) in the arena. And just to make sure Samira wants to whip you right before that to drain your health. Which fails because...well you'll see. You can get an affection boost with Charmer Level I here, but ultimately she will always drag you with her and kick you into the arena where you face: THE CRAWLER!

If you have a good amount of health and stamina, you can just spam your new skill: Double Swift Strike and the giant Crawler will fall! The crowd will be amazed by your fighting skills and you my friend...have completed the Intro Episode of Captured by Dark Elves!

Facts: Old men with long, grey beards will tell you that when they were once captured by dark elves, Samira didn't warn them about the upcoming arena event! And that the Crawler was a real threat, not the toothless, slow and chubby version you faced today! You had to actually manage your health and stamina perfectly and reload if you got unlucky in that fight! They will tell you that only their constant moaning and whining caused Darktoz to make the Intro Episode easier for the next generation...and they are right about that, so give them a hug and a dollar when you see one of them.

Episode 1: Secrets of the Skull Mine!

After beating the crawler Samira seems not very happy. You can earn some affection with Charmer I again, but she will end up hitting you in your face.

You can later tell Khadra about it or decide to keep quiet. Should be obvious that Khadra likes the first option more and Samira the 2nd. After that you will have a brief meeting with the whole skull mine gang, including Valyrr Bavaeleth herself. Your task is to find some ancient relics of the past, so you better get right to it.

Since the Intro Episode is done, you won't be guided around anymore. Most of the scenes are optional and you can choose to ignore a large part of them. Remember that. You actually have to talk to people to make some scenes happen! We start by having a quick look at the mining area:

Yes...pretty large compared to your last area, but still pretty small overall. You can drink from the trough once per day in order to recover stamina!
You will encounter some random scenes you can not influence but only watch, like Astrid and Elorae sorting out their differences the Futa Dark Elf way. I won't mention these since you will encounter them anyway and can't do anything about it.
And now, to the other area, the prison district!

Looks pretty much the same as last episode, right? And will most likely continue to do so in future episodes. Because I'm lazy and stuff...and moving the prison district to another location doesn't really make sense, storywise.

But at least you get a new inmate, because after the first encounter, a scene will introduce the barbarian Druuna to the game. From now on you can speak to her as well. In later episodes, she will even become your companion. So be nice to her!

Walkthrough

The very quick walkthrough:

Sleep! —> Get to Level 5! —> Find dagger! —> Sleep! —> Find chalice! —> Sleep! —> Meet up with the Matron Mother —> End

And now, a bit more detailed! Your goal is up north! In the small cave you will find the ancient dagger. You will have to be at least level 4 to be strong enough to mine the rocks in front of that cave and you have to be at least level 5 to find the chalice later! Yes, that will most likely require you to do some mining and fighting, selling skulls, buying stuff and sleeping.

So, before you find that dagger, you can do some other stuff. For example:

Optional Scene: Worship Talice's feet in the mine (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Get kicked in the nuts by Za'Ress in the mine (Level 1 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Get whipped in the mine by Samira (Level 1 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Get whipped in the mine by Samira (Level 1 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Give Elorae a Blowjob (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Have sex with Khadra (Level 1 Endurance Required)

Optional Scene: Observe Encounter: Please Malthara (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Unlock with skulls: Astrid Handjob T&D (Level 1 Endurance Required)

Also optional: You can actually smuggle something past Elorae now: Arrowheads! You can give these arrowheads to Goren and if you give him enough, he will build something for you in return in the next episode! Keep that in mind.

After you had your fun, it is time to get that dagger. If you find the dagger, a cutscene will trigger. After that you can return to Khadra and get a reward for finding the dagger, or you can try to smuggle it past Elorae...which fails, of course.

After you have found the dagger and want some rest, Za'Ress will come for a visit in your cell...you can choose to not tell her the truth if you have the Iron Skin skill. It will have some impact on the game later on...

Za'Ress Strap-On Interrogation (Level 1 Iron Skin Required)

You now have to find the ancient chalice! It is easy to spot, a blinking light will guide you if the map above isn't enough. You have to be at Level 5, as mentioned above! Another cut scene will trigger, and you can again get a reward from Khadra when delivering the ancient chalice! Before going for some well-deserved sleep, Samira would like to have a word with you...

Samira Torture Chamber Scene (Level 1 Iron Skin and/or Level 1 Charmer Required)

Now, another bunch of optional scenes here, some will be available after you found the dagger, some after you found the chalice:

Optional Scene: Khadra Blowjob Challenge (Level 2 Endurance Required)

Optional Scene: Oral Worship with Talice in the mine (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Oral Worship with Druuna (Level 1 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Oral Worship with Talice in the mine (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Anal with Elorae (Level 1 Endurance Required)

After you found the chalice and have slept again, take a long last look at this area and mine some more ore if you want. Because right back in the prison district Elorae will tell you that the Matron Mother wants to talk to you. Go speak with Elorae and go to the Chambers to end Episode 1! Congratulations!

Facts: Druuna was planned much later for the game. But with giving my Patreon Supporters the ability to choose which character should be available next, I had to bring 3 contestants to vote for. I was certain that people would vote for a giant wicked spiderwoman that I also made. Needless to say that Druuna won by a landslide and the spiderwoman came in last. Shows how well I know my kinky audience. I guess one giant spider is enough in one game.

Episode 2: Riddles in the Dark!

After having a brief meeting with the Matron Mother (and choosing if you want to test her patience or not) Elorae will bring you back into your cell.

Optional Scene: Elorae fucks you if you behaved in front of Valyrr (Level 2 Endurance Required)

Now, whether you had some action with Elorae or not, the next morning Talice will always wake you up to take you with her and Khadra to find the gate. Finding that is pretty easy, just walk along the pathway. Once you found the gate, cross the bridge, fall, watch two extended cutscenes and then get back to what you do best...mining!

Note: You will lose your inventory and skulls when you fall from that bridge and get robbed by goblins!

This time the area is pretty big, but you can handle it! You're having a rough start since you just lost your stuff. My best advice for an easy start is an early conversation with Lorian, who instantly gives you 2 health potions! What a good guy! 😊

You can recruit Druuna now as your companion. Druuna will ask for 15 skulls in return and also she isn't a fan of the small caves where the stones are, so she won't go in there with you. Also, you can't really speak with anyone once she's in your team...because she will speak with everyone instead of you :D. Speaking of the stones, that is your task in this episode. Find and touch all 4 of them. They will be glowing one after the other. Just do what Arachna asks you to do in your dreams.

Walkthrough

The very quick walkthrough:

*Sleep! —> Touch first stone! —> Sleep! —> Touch 2nd stone! —> Sleep! —> Touch 3rd stone!
—> Sleep! —> Touch 4th stone!*

And yes, you need to sleep first in order to make these stones glow again. That is why a lot of cheaters failed miserably in this episode...mining all ore there is with their infinite health and stamina and then wondering why there is nothing going on!

And now, a bit more detailed! Touching the stones will drain health and stamina because Arachna is sucking energy right out of your body. Make sure you either have some food and water ready or just don't do more mining afterwards.

Some of the optional scenes will require the highest level of the skills, as well as some story encounters. It is meant to be that you do not have all of them and have to choose at this point! If you want to be an allrounder, you can get everything up to Level 2 and maybe one already up to level 3. You want to please Futanari? Tongue Twirler III and Endurance III would be an excellent choice! Want to please the most sadistic dark elves? Go with Iron Skin III and Endurance III. Want to have all the dialogue options? Charmer III is it for you. Take what you think is best.

There are of course a lot of optional scenes to see, some of them are available right from the start, for others you might have to touch the stones first:

Optional Scene: Footjob from Shyael in the mine (Level 2 Charmer Required)

Optional Scene: Blowjob for Grishna in the mine (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Samira Ballcrush and Spear Cut in the mine (Level 2 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Elorae Deepthroat (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Talice Assworship in the mine (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Za'Ress Kicking (Level 2 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Observe Encounter: Please Za'Ress (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Observe Encounter: Khadra (After 3rd Stone)

Optional Scene: Astrid Tongue Tease (Skulls, Level 2 Endurance Required)

Optional Scene: Khadra Sex (after 2nd stone, Level 3 Endurance Required) (already seen last episode)

Optional Scene: Khadra Oral Worship (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required)

Optional Scene: Samira Facesitting (After first Stone, Level 2 Endurance Required)

Optional Scene: Druuna Oral Worship (Level 2 Tongue Twirler Required) (already seen last episode)

Optional Scene: Druuna Trampling (After first Stone, Level 2 Iron Skin Required)

Optional Scene: Grishna Anal (After 2nd Stone, Level 3 Endurance Required)

Optional Scene: Talice Human Dildo in mine (After 2nd Stone, Level 3 Endurance Required)

Also optional: Talice will teach you one of her combat skills if you are already Level 10, Lorian will continue to give you "Black Honey" in return for Nightshade and Goren will finally finish a tool for you if you have given him enough arrowheads.

With that tool you can loosen up the back wall of your cell. It will take about 6 days of constant use of that tool and afterwards you will need something else that you cannot get your hands on in that episode!

So you see, there is actually a lot to miss if you rush through, so take your time! Now let us go on with the scenes that are not optional, and I will try to be a bit more detailed with the walkthrough, although it's really easy:

After you go back to the prison district for the first time, Khadra will drag you into the torture chamber

Khadra Fire Torture (Level 2 Iron Skin Required)

After you encountered Khadra for the first time and get another vision of Arachna, the first stone will start to glow. You can touch it now and give Arachna your energy. The lights near the portal will begin to glow if you have touched one of the stones, that way you can see how many stones you have touched and how many you have left. Having touched the first stone, on the way back to the cells a cutscene with the other slaves will trigger.

After touching the 2nd stone Samira would like to have a word with you! Due to previous failure she's been training a lot and is actually quite good with the whip now. That means you cannot avoid gettin' hit by her. Only charmer works to get some affection...

Samira Torture and Feet kissing (Level 3 Charmer Required)

After that, Malthara will visit you in your prison cell. Select the right answer and she will give you more than just a history lesson! Or select the right answer and she won't...depending whether it's right for you to suck her off or not 😊

Malthara Deepthroat (Level 3 Tongue Twirler Required)

You've almost done it, touch one more stone, number 3, and return to the cell district to get a torture scene with Talice, who finally reveals the 'Annihilator'

Talice Pegging (Level 3 Iron Skin Required)

After surviving that encounter you've made it again. Congratz!

The fourth and final stone will glow now! You can touch it and trigger the ending of this episode or decide to stay a bit longer, mining ore and level up! You might want to earn yourself some skulls. But then again, maybe you'll just get robbed like in this episode. Mmmh...decisions, decisions!

Facts: It was the first episode where I tried to make almost everything optional. Aside from the torture, you could just do the mining, sleep in your cell, mine again and live the happy, uncomplicated and simple life of a slave. The Talice pegging scene in the end was planned as a rough torture and footworship scene at first.

Then I posted a preview picture of the goblins. And some people thought instead of robbing you, they would engage in some gay goblin action with you (I might have purposely added to this confusion). Some Patreon Supporters where against any gay scenes and expressed that. The "gay" tag seems to be where a lot of people draw the line, even if it is optional, even if it is in a game like this. I mean, until now you don't have to deal with any futanari content. Yes, the futanari are in this game, they might flash their dicks here and there, but you do only have to talk to them once in a while, they never force themselves onto you. You can ignore them for the most part. I try to do that in all my recent games. So that people who are turned off by futanari content can still enjoy the game! But it's no option to exclude futanari content! Never ever!

Now, we do have some male npc's in the game as well! So even if right now there is not any gay scenes in this game, optional gay scenes might come...most likely for the ending, though...which is a bit far away at the moment. It also got me thinking that if the player, who is supposed to be a slave in this scenario, can choose everything that happens to him, is he really a slave? Or is he the secret king of the skull mine?

In the end I decided to make the final torture scene a strap-on pegging scene with a giant spiked iron dildo that Talice fucks you with after she restrains you. Without any warning. Just to say: "That is what you have to expect when you play a Darktoz Game!" 😊
